

International Small Package Shipping

Wednesday, June 5, 2019 | 11:00 - 11:45 AM | Live Webinar

Learn how to best take advantage of what the big three (UPS, DHL, and FedEx) offer and be confident that your shipments are export compliant, as well as a few “gotchas” to avoid. Our presenter, a former logistics manager whose team did 85-100 small pack exports/day, will share her best tricks of the trade.

Who should attend:

- Small business or start up business owners considering international sales
- Any business with online retail sales
- Employees responsible for shipping and processing of orders

Topics covered include:

- Risks when shipping internationally
- Must-dos for my first international orders
- Basic documentation
- Key points of export compliance made simple for small volume exporters
- Best markets for small volume exporters
- Business considerations as potential for international sales increase

Presenter:

Kristen Morneau, a Senior Advisor at Mohawk Global Trade Advisors, has worked in international trade compliance and logistics for over two decades. As a former logistics and trade compliance manager, she implemented an export compliance program and created a process for automation of order holds for export controlled goods.

U.S. Small Business Administration

Funded in part through a grant with the U.S. Small Business Administration

Maine International Trade Center

MITC Members: $15 per person Non-Members: $25 per person

REGISTER ONLINE AT MITC.COM