

Incoterms 2020 - What You Need to Know

Tuesday, February 11, 2020 | 11:00-11:45 AM | Live Webinar

Incoterms 2020 takes effect this year! Learn about what has changed in the Incoterms rules, the International Chamber of Commerce's set of rules which establish the responsibilities and obligations of international buyers and sellers.

The use of these universal terms helps both parties understand the tasks, costs, risks and responsibilities, as well as the logistics and transportation management involved. In this webinar, Incoterms are explained so that you have the information needed to determine which term best suits your international shipment.

Who should attend:

- Importers
- Exporters
- Purchasing Departments
- Sales Departments
- Logistics Departments
- Anyone involved in International Documentation, Compliance Rules and Regulations

Topics Covered

- What are the new Incoterms rules?
- How have they changed from the previous rules?
- Incoterms pitfalls
- How to use Incoterms

Presenter:

Kristen Morneau, a Senior Advisor at Mohawk Global Trade Advisors, has worked in international trade compliance and logistics for over two decades. As a former logistics and trade compliance manager, she implemented an export compliance program and created a process for automation of order holds for export controlled goods.

MITC Members: $15 per person Non-Members: $25 per person

Maine International Trade Center

REGISTER ONLINE AT MITC.COM