

Virtual Strategies to Make Your School Stand Out

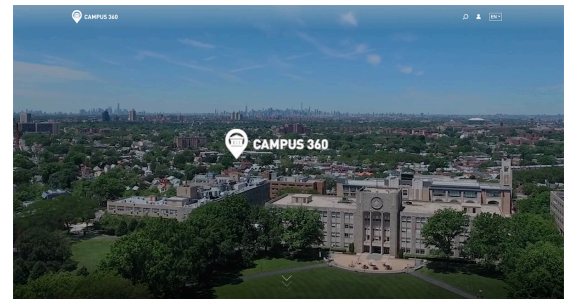

Free Live Webinar | Wednesday, May 6th | 2:00 - 3:00 PM

While already growing in popularity before COVID-19, virtual campus tours are now an essential element of a successful international recruitment strategy because of travel restrictions. Many students under lockdown and “stay at home” requirements are spending more time online and actively researching study abroad options for when the pandemic is over. Is your school positioned to stand out online?

Join StudyMaine for this webinar to learn more about:

- Evolution of 5G and VR/AR technologies
- Free platforms for sharing your immersive media
- Using your virtual tour to create powerful, guided experiences
- DIY techniques and strategies to create your own VR content

Our presenter is Gavin Newton-Tanzer, CEO, from Campus 360, a neutral platform that allows college, universities, and high schools to share their campus tours with the world and offers high-quality professional filming and tour development services for institutions seeking to update or create their virtual campus tour.
