

Mitigating Global Supply Chain Challenges

September 15 | 11:00am - 12:00pm | Live Webinar

How have supply chain disruptions during the global pandemic impacted business operations?
What strategies and technologies will help you increase supply chain resilience?
Will re-thinking supply chain management result in meaningful change to your business model?

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- Management
- Purchasing
- Sales
- Inventory Management
- Shipping/Receiving

TOPICS COVERED INCLUDE:

- Diversifying manufacturing and distribution
- Managing freight availability
- Customer strategies
- Adjusting to multiple trade interruptions
- Being prepared for the next crisis

Kristen K. Morneau, LCB, CCS

Senior Advisor, Mohawk Global Trade Advisors

Kristen Morneau is a licensed Customs broker and Certified Customs Specialist who has worked in international trade compliance and logistics for nearly three decades throughout the New England region. Her experience has given her the opportunity to create and manage import and export compliance, CTPAT, and training programs, while being part of the supply chain and customer operations.